Dear Allen

I take a great deal of pleasure in sending you with our compliments this copy of THE STORY OF AMERICAN BANK NOTE COMPANY.

Although the business of the Company had its inception shortly after the birth of our nation, this is the first time its story has been told. We feel that Mr. William H. Griffiths, a well-known author and reporter on corporate life, has done an outstanding job of portraying our origins and development and capturing some of the flavor and romance of our rather unique business.

We hope therefore that you and your associates may find this book interesting, and that you may derive enjoyment from examining the steel-engraved examples of our craftsmanship that are included among its illustrations.

Best regards, Fred
